THE SULTAN'S SUCCESSOR.

National Assembly Appoints New Caliph.

MORE WORRIES FOR SIR CHARLES HARRINGTON

(Reuter's Service.)
Constantinople, November 19.
An Ankara official message says the National Assembly has elected Abdul Medjid, the Crown Prince, the new Caliph. The formal ceremonies will take place at the Topkapu Palace.

The Preliminary Conference.
Lausanne, November 19.
It has now been decided that Lord Curzon, M. Poincare and Signor Mussolini shall hold a preliminary conference at the Beau Rivage Hotel.

Censorship to Go.
Constantinople, November 19.
The Allied High Commissioners have decided to abolish the inter-Allied censorship on Rafet Pasha's undertaking to see that the newspapers do not publish anything harmful to the safety of the Allied troops and to public order.

An Embarrassment For Gen. Harrington.
Constantinople, November 19.
While Abdul Medjid obtained a strong majority over Selim, the son of Abdul Hamid was indeed considered elected, a later message from Ankara says the discussion was resumed in the morning, suggesting a hitch.

Meanwhile conditions at the Palace are said to be chaotic. All the servants of the late Sultan have gone over to the Kemalists. The Sultan before his departure made General Harrington the somewhat embarrassing request to look after his wives and family. It seems likely that some of the former desire to join their husband abroad.

The Final Choice.

Constantinople, November 19.
An Ankara official message says Abdul Medjid has been definitely elected Khalif.

Congress of Military Commanders.

Constantinople, November 19.
There was a four-hour meeting of Allied Generals here. Rafet Pasha, the unsuccessful Turkish representative, is adopting an uncompromising attitude regarding the functions of the police and the magistracy.

Rafet Pasha insisted that the Kemalists should assume entire responsibility for the maintenance of public order over the whole administration of Constantinople. He uttered a warning that attempted interference in internal affairs would only give rise to incidents.

On the contrary the Generals insisted that Allied police should continue to work as heretofore.

The meeting broke up without any settlement, but a further meeting is to be held to-morrow.

Arrival of Conference Delegates.

Lausanne, November 19.
The British and French delegations have arrived.

M. Haab, the Swiss President, welcomed Lord Curzon and M. Poincare, who subsequently proceeded to Territet in order to meet Signor Mussolini.

Turks to Administer Gallipoli.

Constantinople, November 19.
In accordance with the agreement between the Allied High Commissioners and Rafet Pasha, the administrative services at Gallipoli are being handed over to the Turks on November 25.

Allies Reach An Understanding.

Lausanne, November 19.
A communique issued after the inter-Allied meeting at Territet says that M. Poincare, Signor Mussolini and Lord Curzon had first a conversation during which it was made clear there was a common resolve to settle, in a spirit of most cordial friendship and a basis of perfect equality between the Allies, all the questions which would be dealt with at the Lausanne Conference.

A further conversation was subsequently held, after which the Ministers departed for Lausanne.

AMERICAN PARTY PROGRAMMES.

Restoration of Foreign Markets Desired.

Washington, November 19.
Definite plans for the organisation of a legislative bloc, consisting of the progressive and more radical elements which are expected to hold the balance of power in the next Congress, are foreshadowed by a summons to a conference on December 1.

A meeting has also been called for December 11 of national leaders, the Labour, Farmers' and other special parties, with a view to organising public opinion in favour of a more legislative programme, including the defeat of the Ship Subsidy Bill and the passage of Labour and other legislation.

A statement issued by Senator Copper, leader of the agricultural group, demands that the Government take steps to promote the recovery of Europe and the restoration of foreign markets for the surplus production of American farms and factories.

The agricultural bloc opposes the Ship Subsidy Bill and urges rigid enforcement of prohibition.

AUSTRIA'S FINANCIAL PROBLEM.

Cessation of Banknote Printing.

Vienna, November 19.
It is reported that the Government has agreed with the League of Nations delegates that henceforth the State ceases to cover financial requirements by the issue of new notes, and presumably resorts to a new note bank for the money needed.

New banknotes will only be issued in future to meet the ordinary demands of commerce and industry, hence Austria's banknote printing presses will be at a standstill.

AUSTRALIAN ELECTIONS.

Labour Party's Aims.

London, November 19.
In view of the forthcoming elections in Australia, interest attaches to a speech made at Melbourne by the Labourite, Mr. Charlton, the leader of the opposition in the Commonwealth Parliament, who declared that if the Labour Party returned to power it would reduce the expenditure on defence and abolish compulsory training, and revive the old voluntary system.

"SUI AN" PIRATED.

Indian Guards Killed.

CAPT. BIRSS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

ALL THE PASSENGERS ROBBED.

FULL ACCOUNT AS DETAILED BY THE PASSENGERS.

Another daring piracy has been added to the long list of those which has befallen Hongkong steamers. This time a boat no less well-known than the Macao excursion steamer, s.s. Sui An was made the victim, and in consequence many Europeans, and hundreds of Chinese, have been robbed of all they had. Two Indian guards have been killed, two others wounded the skipper (Captain R. A. Birss) seriously wounded, other officers slightly wounded and a European passenger Mr. Hawthorne, of Messrs Hawthorne and Pearson seriously wounded. The whole affair has created a great sensation in the Colony to-day.

The First Shots.

Yesterday, as usual, the Sui An left Hongkong for Macao at 9 o'clock. There were a large number of excursionists, the saloon passengers numbering over 60, no fewer than 11 or 12 nationalities being represented. Britishers numbered more than half. In the light of what subsequently happened, it is conjectured that among the Chinese passengers, who boarded the vessel was a big gang of Chinese pirates—ex-soldiers, led by a notorious woman bandit. All went well on the outward trip, and the boat left Macao at her usual hour—five o'clock. The boat had not left Macao more than one hour and a quarter when shots rang out in the steerage part of the ship.

Indian Guards Shot.

What happened immediately afterwards is rather confused in the various accounts of the passengers seen by Telegraph representatives to-day. It is certain, however, that the firing of the first shot was the signal for a general campaign of firing and intimidation by a gang of armed men who must have numbered fully fifty. The two Indian guards on duty down below immediately put up a fight, but they were at once shot down and, before it was known whether they were killed or not, the pirates threw the bodies overboard. Rushing up the gangway steps to the saloon deck, firing everywhere as they went, the pirates soon had the whole ship under their control, but not before further men had been wounded. Europeans were surprised and forced to hold up their hands.

European Passenger Wounded.

Mr. Hawthorne, one of the passengers, tried to grapple with the man who presented a revolver at him and succeeded in getting the better of him, but another pirate, coming up behind, shot Mr. Hawthorne through the back, seriously wounding him. The Captain was not on the bridge at the time, but he came rushing along the deck from the stern of the boat only to be shot just as he reached the bridge. The first officer, who was on duty, was wounded but not very seriously.

The Female Pirate Leader.

Meanwhile, other pirates had swarmed all over the ship, bustling and herding the passengers into various places; some were huddled in a lavatory, others in the saloon and others in alley ways. It early became evident that a woman was in charge of the pirates and that although she had been wounded in the leg by one of the Indian guards, she boats and, when some little way off the ship, fired a volley of shots over her and gave a cheer as a farewell. They were then seen making for the land, urging the sampans men to row as fast as possible.

Calling for Help.

The first officer, together with Mr. Holmes, an officer of the s.s. Telemachus, who was a passenger, and Mr. J. Halston, also a passenger, took charge of matters on the bridge. By consulting the charts they found that the ship was off the island of Tsang Chau, a small island to the north of Bias Bay, which is north of Mira Bay. A course was set for Hongkong and a signal of distress hoisted. As the boat passed Waglan light-house, the signal "Doctor and Police, Urgent" was run up and after some little time Waglan reported that it had read the signal. A wireless was sent here just before 11 o'clock. The s.s. Hongshan, which was lying in Hongkong, was at once sent out with police and Dr. Balcan on board.

The Sui An was met, and when the police and doctor got aboard they found plenty of work. The Sui An was first of all anchored in the Naval Anchorage—just after noon—and later proceeded to her own wharf, where the wounded men were first put ashore into the waiting ambulances. The passengers were kept on board until two o'clock, a huge crowd of anxious friends and relatives waiting outside the wharf to welcome them back.

A Telegraph representative, who got aboard while the boat was lying at the anchorage, had interesting conversations with many of the passengers, from whom the above story was gleaned.

The Casualties.

The two Indian guards, who were shot early on, were the only men actually killed.

The Master of the vessel (Capt. Birss) was seriously wounded in the back and severely battered over the head. The pirates spoke to him afterwards and told him that if he would sooner be killed out of his pain, they would throw him overboard. He asked to be given a chance.

Mr. Hawthorne, of Messrs Hawthorne and Pearson, was seriously wounded in the back. An Indian Guard was seriously shot in the back and head.

The Chief Officer and the Chief Engineer were both wounded. A Catholic French priest, who was rather seriously wounded by a ricochet bullet.

A Chinese passenger was wounded, and a Portuguese passenger wounded.

The Haul.

It is estimated that the pirates made a haul of something over $50,000. In addition to money and jewellery, a large quantity of valuable ship's equipment and cargo was taken.

The appearance of the ship this morning almost beggars description. Everything had been turned topsy-turvy, the whole place having been ransacked. The passengers were tired out by fatigue and hunger, but there was a remarkably cheerful spirit considering what they had all passed through.

Some of the Passengers.

Among the European passengers on board were: Inspector, Mrs. and Miss Kent, Mr. S. Komor, Mr. J. Halston, Mr. Gerard (Taikoo), Mr. J. C. Johnston, Mr. W. E. L. Weaver, Mr. Hawthorne, Mr. Holmes, several members of the Italian Opera Company (including M. Carpi, the Director), Mr. Orton, Mr. R. S. Judah, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. E. Haroon, Mr. Mello (the last two named helping considerably in interpreting for the pirates), Mr. Chabell, etc.

Considerate Pirates.

The foreign passengers seen by our reporter had nothing but a good word to say in regard to the treatment they subsequently received from the robbers. Although the robbery itself was accompanied by many brutal incidents, as is to be expected under the circumstances, once its object was accomplished the robbers were very considerate and even went to the extent of bringing from the storeroom to of the first class passengers. The general opinion is expressed in the case of one passenger, that most of the robbers were discharged by the robbers who appear to have possessed but a very slight knowledge of the use of their arms. The weapons used were of all makes and sizes, and dangled very carelessly from strings tied to their wrists. There was considerable apprehension that the robbers might be discharged accidentally on contact.

Mr. Musso's Experience.

Mr. Musso, who is one of the passengers, stated that he was in his cabin engaged in a game of cards with friends when the disturbance of arms, following on the stampede, made them realise the actual state of affairs. The door was locked and, for additional safety, the light was put out, whilst all remained quiet hoping that the robbers might miss them in the search. After being left in suspense for two hours, there came a knock at the door as one of the small parties of pirates that made a periodical search every half-hour paused at the door. An attempt was made to force open the door and, judging that it would be wiser not to put the robbers into a bad humour, one of those in the cabin unlocked the door and admitted the pirates. There were about five of them, all armed with revolvers. At their orders all personal articles of jewellery and also some money were handed over to the gang who apparently appeared to be satisfied with the explanation that the comparatively small extent of the passengers' possessions was due to an unfortunate visit to one of the fan shops at Macao.

Others who visited the cabin afterwards very anxiously enquired for the compradore. As a matter of fact, the robbers spent half their time in looking for this man who was known to hold the keys of the safe, the ultimate goal of the pirates' hopes. By some means, which is not disclosed at present, the compradore hid his identity with such success that although the pirates were all over the ship accusing this and that passenger as being the man they sought, he remained unknown to them right to the end.

Mr. Hawthorne's Experience.

Mr. Hawthorne, of the tailoring firm of Messrs Hawthorne and Pearson, was shot in several places in an attempt to protect a number of ladies who were with him at the time. Lying on a long deck chair apparently suffering great pain, he was nevertheless able to give to our reporter a very graphic account of his own experience. He had closed in, it appears, with one of the robbers, grabbing the man by the neck with one hand whilst with the other he caught the arm holding the revolver. The shot was thus diverted to Mr. Hawthorne's knee and it was just after this that another man fired two shots, causing two more wounds in the right side. Mr. Hawthorne was wearing a thick overcoat at the time and one bullet lodged itself in the coat. Collapsing after another wound, Mr. Hawthorne fell to the deck. He described his treatment as being "rough" when the robber jumped with both feet on his abdomen, and then went away leaving him for dead. It was not until four o'clock this morning, nine hours after he was shot, that he was removed from his exposed position on the bridge deck into better shelter.

It appears that all lights were put out by the robbers, some of the passengers being made to do this. An Indian youth, named Haroon, was forced to act as interpreter, and he relates that at the place where the Sui An stopped, some fifty miles off its course, a number of junks were forced by the firing of shots to go alongside the vessel, and take on the pirates and their booty. It was a very complete haul that the gang made. When they went aboard they were dressed in attire of all sorts and conditions, but when they left there had been replaced by newer and more valuable articles purloined from victims.

reports that his forces have occupied Chiening from which Wang Yung-chuan's troops retreated as far as Chien-chu. It thus appears that Tsai Cheng-hsun has entirely disregarded the Government's instructions to recall the Kiangsi expedition. Chen Chungmeng has evidently fallen in with Li Hou-chi's suggestion of a Conference at Swatow on the Fukien situation as Li Hou-chi last night left for Swatow. It is rumoured

THE FUTURE OF

tion of its work and the peaceful political situation at Vladivostok.
All the foreign consuls have Government intends to pursue a policy encouraging the investment of foreign capital, particularly British, in Siberia, guaranteeing absolute security. A branch of emanated from powers outside of

The Metropolitan Police held Mr. Lo until this morning when he was handed over to the local Court Authorities. There are various rumours regarding the cause of the arrest, which cannot yet be verified. There is a large meeting of Cabinet Ministers and High Officials at President Li noon. The arrest has caused a sensation in Peking.—Reuter.

WHAT IS EYESTRAIN?

They are ascertaining muscles.
When objects we look at do not come up to a sharp focus in the eye, these muscles exert themselves unduly and enable us to see clearly in spite of the defect.
These muscles tire and relax causing the objects looked at to become blurred and indistinct.
Upon closing the eyes for a few seconds the muscles become more or less rested and objects are clear again for a brief period.
Properly fitted glasses correct eyestrain; whether caused by astigmatism or age. The Hong-

EARLIER TELEGRAMS

THE HOME ELECTIONS.

London, Nov. 18.
The future relationship of the two Liberal wings is being re-discussed. In view of the independent majority secured by the Conservatives there is a tendency to believe that the ex-Coalition Liberals will eventually merge with the Wee Frees, and the Chamberlainites will drift back to the Government benches; but the obstacle to this is that many National Liberals, especially Scottish members, owe their seats to Tory votes and such a step might provoke difficulties with their constituents.

Mr. H. G. Wells, the Labour candidate, was defeated at London University. He polled 1,427 votes. Sir Russell Wells, the Unionist, won with 3,533 votes, and Professor Pollard, the Liberal, was second with 2,180 votes.

London, Nov. 19.
Mr. Bonar Law has announced that His Majesty will open Parliament on November 23rd. Approval of the Irish Constitution will be immediately sought. Lord Curzon's summons to the House of Lords says that this session of Parliament will be brief and devoted mainly to Irish affairs.

London, Nov. 19.
The election in Fermanagh and Tyrone, in which two Unionists were defeated, was fought on the issue whether the two counties should remain under the Northern Government. The successful Sinn Féin, Cahir Healy, is an internee at Lough Lorne and was not allowed even to communicate his views to the electors.

London, Nov. 19.
The tendency is apparent in some of the Sunday papers to regard the result of the Election in a more sober mood than the partisan dailies did in the excitement of the moment. The leading journals are in nowise unfriendly towards the Government, but are careful to regard it as still on trial. Both the Sunday Times, which as a former Coalition organ is decidedly lukewarm, and
The Observer, which is more cordial towards the new Administration, do not fail to dwell on the fact that it was returned by the minority votes cast in the electorate. The Sunday Times, in calling attention to the glaring voting disparities in several constituencies, includes the case of Mr. Bonar Law at Central Glasgow, where he polled less than his opponents' aggregate. The Observer recognises the debating strength against the Government forces and advises the new Ministers "to go out and hit the bowling."
Simultaneously, it suggests that Mr. Bonar Law should approach the Unionist ex-Ministers to rejoin the Cabinet.

Much attention is devoted to the future of Mr. Lloyd George, who is generally expected to prove strong in opposition. The Observer describes him as the finest political fighter of the age and adds that the Unionists would be noodles to regard him as a spent force when he is a power. The paper opines that he will bide his time until the question is settled whether he is to lead Labour or Unionism in the long run. The paper elsewhere pays high tributes to Mr. Winston Churchill and deplors his defeat.
However, it is confident that he will return to the Commons a bigger man than ever.

Lord Beaverbrook, who is one of the staunchest supporters of Mr. Bonar Law, in the Sunday Express echoes the belief that Mr.
Lloyd George will make himself the leader of the Opposition, embracing Labour because he is a Radical by nature. Lord Beaverbrook welcomes the idea as it will revivify Liberalism and act as a check on the Labour Extremists in the Liberal-Labour Administration, which would later emerge from such leadership and be simply a strongly Radical Government.

M. CLEMENCEAU AT NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 19.
M. Clemenceau has arrived. Responding to an address of welcome at the City Hall, M. Clemenceau said that the only purpose of his mission was to bring France's position more clearly home to Americans.

THE BANQUE INDUSTRIELLE.

London, Nov. 19.
A special Paris message states that much keenness was reflected in the speeches in the Chamber during the final discussion on the Bill for re-floating the Banque Industrielle, on November 16th. The Colonial Commission warmly supported the measure. M. Outrey, the Chairman thereof, drew attention to the interests not only of the French and Chinese but the Antanmites who had deposited money in the Bank and were now penniless. M. Isaac hoped that, if the Bank was unable to pay all the depositors in gold, French citizens who had received official assurances should be granted priority. The socialist, M. Lafont frequently intervened, opposing the Bill. M. Bokanowski stated that the object of the discussion was not merely concerned with rescuing the Bank, pointing out that the directors had already suffered civil penalties and were not yet out of the wood. Moreover, the shareholders were compelled to pay up the remaining three quarters of their holdings. M. Poincare explained that the re-floating of the Bank was a matter affecting the prosperity and good name of France, after which an altercation arose between M. Lafont and M. Poincare. The former prefaced a remark concerning M. Poincare's sincerity with the adverb "probably," which he refused to withdraw. The Premier eventually administered verbal castigation, after which the vote was taken.

RUSSIAN TEXTILE TRADE.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 19.
It is announced here that the State Universal Stores Limited, of Russia, have ordered fifty thousand bales of cotton; the approximate value of which is six million dollars. The order is placed with the Texas Cotton Association for delivery at Petrograd.
It is declared that its arrival will enable Russia to resume production in her Textile Mills.

PACIFIC COAST FISHERIES.

Ottawa, Nov. 19.
The Royal Commission appointed to investigate the Pacific Coast fisheries recommends a reduction of the fishing licenses to Orientals by 40 per cent. in 1923, the creation of a new Department of Fisheries and the establishment of a close season for sockeye salmon for four years on the Fraser River and tributaries, provided the Americans do the same in Puget Sound.

AMERICAN SHIP SUBSIDY BILL'S FATE.

New York, Nov. 19.
Leading politicians predict that the Shipping Subsidy Bill will be hurried through the House of Representatives during the coming session, but they anticipate that defeat awaits the measure in the Senate. If this prediction is verified the plan may be regarded as dead, because the measure will stand no chance in the new Congress.

BANK FAILURES IN MEXICO.

Mexico City, Nov. 18.
In connection with the recent bank failures, the Secretary of Finance has declared that the general economic position is sound, and no moratorium is contemplated. The failures have been followed by runs on the local banks at Vera Cruz, where one firm has suspended payment.

THE GERMAN CABINET.

Berlin, Nov. 19.
Herr Cuno is experiencing great difficulty in forming a Cabinet in consequence of the disinclination of the principal Political Parties, with whom President Ebert conferred, to co-operate. It is believed, however, that Herr Cuno, urged by President Ebert, will endeavour to form a non-political Cabinet, which the parties may be disposed to regard benevolently.

"THE SPORT OF KINGS."

The Fifth Gymkhana Meeting.

The beautiful weather drew many devotees of the turf to the Gymkhana on Saturday afternoon, but the attendance was not as large as usual. Perhaps the unpopular new arrangements were responsible for a number staying away. H.E. the Governor (Sir Edward Stubbs) and a party from Government House were present.

The Wongneichong end of the ground, in which the followers of the sport, non-members of the Hongkong Jockey Club, were confined, presented the animated scene usual at Happy Valley on Gymkhana days. The portion reserved for "Members only," shut off by the new barrier, which was in evidence for the first time, was very full-looking, and the fine big grandstand was empty all the afternoon. The racing saw few surprises.

"Aloha," with Mr. Soares up, paid $119.50 for a win, and those who backed "West River" Mr. Zelicke's drew $48.10, but apart from these the horses were fairly evenly backed.

Handicap.—For ponies that have run in any race—including Polo—Scurries but never won. First prize $20, 2nd, $12, 3rd, $7, 4th, $3.

Mr. A. W. da Rosa's Aloha 115 lbs. Mr. Soares 1
Dr. C. Forsyth's Hurry On 140 lbs. Mr. Doyle 2

Mr. E. Smith's Top Don 115 lbs. Mr. Gibson 3
Mr. Gibson 3

Also ran: Dunmore (Mr. Mat chani, Fongian) (Capt. Palmes). The field got away at the first attempt and, with the exception of Fongian, was well bunched till rounding the bend into the straight, where the order was Aloha, Hurry On, Dunmore. At the distance post the Don moved into third place. A fine struggle between Aloha and Dr. Forsyth's nomination ensued. Mr. Soares' mount gaining the verdict by a bare half length. A fourth separated second and third.

ITALIAN OPERA.

Successful Production of "Norma."

Bellini's "Norma," a story woven around the Druids at the time of the Roman invasion of Gaul, was the musical treat staged by the Grand Italian Opera Company at the Theatre Royal on Saturday night.

The concerted items were magnificent and evoked hearty rounds of applause from an appreciative audience. Mr. A. Mauceri, who took the part of "Oronzo" (the Arch-Druid, father of "Norma"), possesses a good bass voice, deep and mellow, which was heard to advantage on several occasions during the evening. The role of "Norma" (High Priestess of the Temple of Euse) was portrayed by Miss T. Impolloni. Her rendering of "Casta Diva" was exquisite.

Miss Impolloni's top notes being exceptionally fine. In another scene Miss Impolloni, with Miss C. Vioras, as "Adalgisa" (a virgin of the Temple), made a great appeal with the melodious number "Hear Me, Norma." The tenor, Cav. Artino, who took the part of "Pollione" (a Roman consul commanding the legions of Gaul), also was much appreciated. The chorus—priests and officers of the Temple, Gallic warriors,

FAR EASTERN GARRISONS.

Irreducible Limit Reached.

The reduction of the British troops in Far Eastern garrisons cannot be carried much further, says a Home paper.

The very limit of efficiency has been reached by the economy of the War Office. Most people think that at least four infantry battalions are required for the proper garrisoning of Hongkong, Singapore and other points, and all that there are left now are two British battalions.

The craze for economy in the defensive forces of the country is only equalled by the lavish expenditure in civil red tape stunts, with which the taxpayer is being overburdened. It is quite possible that in the general election to be held in the near future a change of policy will result—a much-needed change.

priestesses and virgins of the Temple, and other characters—maintained the splendid reputation they have made during the visit of the talented Company to the Colony, and added in no small measure to the success Saturday night's performance achieved.

To-night the well-known and popular "Carmen," which needs no introduction to music-lovers, will be staged.

MAGISTRATE ON SUNDAY GAMES.

The Bradford Stipendiary Magistrate (Mr. Beaumont Morice), addressing a gathering in the Span Valley last month said he trembled sometimes to think what the country would be if there were not still Sunday schools throughout the length and breadth of the land.
 He declared that Sunday games were a real menace to the schools, and amongst other regrettable developments of the last 20 years he indicated Sunday excursions, the non-maintenance of family worship, and the lack in home life of wise checks and restraints.

CRICKET.

Friendly Matches.

Although the League season
 does not start until next Saturday, most of the cricket pitches were occupied during the week-end.
 Some good games were witnessed, but it was apparent that some of the teams have not yet settled down to their old form. Many of the Clubs have to deplore the loss of good players. Kowloon, last year's champions, being particularly badly hit.

One of the most interesting matches on Saturday was that which took place between Taikok and Wayfoong on the Hongkong Cricket Club ground. It was a heavy scoring match, and was drawn. The B. and S. men, who took first knock, ran up the big total of 211. A. L. Gace, H.
 Crowley, J. D. Crawford and H.W.
 Roger being in especially fine form with the bat. Once hit ten fours in his 39, Crawford and Crowley each claiming eight. The last three Tai-ko wickets fell for one run.
 Thanks to the splendid batting of W. J. Clark, D. H. Peak, G. R.
 Clark and D. E. G. Nicholson, Wayfoong had 161 on the board
 when time was called, for the loss of only five wickets. The bowling on both sides was weak. Scores:

University v. H.K.C.C. 2nd XI.

In a very exciting match the University defeated Hongkong
 Cricket Club 2nd XI by one wicket.
 Set to get 120 to win, the University looked at one time as if the task was too much for them. With the last man in the University required eight for victory, Ong and Veejee easily obtained the run, the former having 27 to his credit and being unbeaten when the match was brought to a close.
 With the home team's score standing at 120 for nine wickets, H. F.
 Hollands had 17 knocked off him
 in one over—a five and three fours.

CHINESE LADIES' DRESS.

 ment of an important meeting decision was arrived at.

GOVERNMENT'S PUBLICITY MEDIUM.

Advertising on 500,000,000
 Letters.

Apparently the day is still distant when the tempting possibilities of the postal service from the advertising point of view will be fully exploited, says the Times of October 10. The proposal actively canvassed some time ago for "letting" the back of postage stamps for advertisements, which won the enthusiasm of the utilitarians on the one hand and provoked the indignation of the sentimentalists on the other, has got no further. As for the other proposal, that the stampobliterating machines at least should be converted into revenue-earning units, it was stated at the Post Office yesterday that Mr. Kellaway has decided that for the present at any rate, their use shall be confined to Government publicity.

During the war, of course, extensive use was made of this medium by the Government to advertise savings certificates and other movements, and a start is to be made with a new publicity scheme. For months to come the automatic stampers will draw public attention to the British Empire Exhibition, to be held at Wembley in 1924. It will be some weeks before the whole postal system can take part, but Sheffield, Cardiff, Bradford, Pur-
 mouth, Blackpool, Brighton, Bournemouth, Dundee, Preston,
 and Exeter will make a start this week. London and Birmingham will join in next month, and the other centres in December.

It is estimated that a total of five hundred million letters will bear the exhibition announcement within the next twelve months.

FAIR PLAY FOR GIRLS.

Too Many Overtax Their Strength.

A girl who earns her parents'
 admiration by growing rapidly, becoming taller than themselves before she is well embarked on womanhood, hardly has fair play.
 She often outgrows her strength, and unless her development is carefully watched and her blood kept up to the mark, she will become pale and anaemic, suffering sometimes great misery, and will run a great risk of going into a decline.

The great need of growing girls is pure blood—abundant, rich and red. In all ordinary cases the new rich blood made by Dr. Williams' pink pills for pale people will enable a pale, thin girl to develop healthily to blooming womanhood. With this new blood in her veins she will gain a glow of health in her cheeks, her eyes will become clear and sparkling, and with a keen appetite for meals, and power to digest food, she will throw off all lassitude and depression and grow strong and upright. In such cases Dr.
 Williams' pink pills impart a new interest in life.

Dr. Williams' pink pills can be bought everywhere, also, post free, one bottle for $1.50, six for $3.00 from the Dr. Williams'
 Medicine Co., 95 Seabrook Road, Shanghai. Their beneficial effect on the looks and the appetite is very quick and well-marked. This can be proved by starting a course of the Pills now.

HONGKONG, 20th Nov., 1922.

THE BOXING BAN.

In making mention on Saturday of the fact that the naval authorities have placed a ban on fights in which "coloured" men are engaged, we remarked that the decision would not be popular with the public. Over the weekend the subject has aroused considerable discussion amongst sportsmen, and we find that the naval attitude is almost unanimously condemned. We are not surprised that that should be so, because we believe the ban to be altogether unjustified and even a little foolish.

We have in previous comment on this "colour" question expressed our views at length, but the occasion calls for a few additional observations. No reason is given why fights of the nature indicated are undesirable. Is it fear of racial trouble? If so, we would point out and emphasise that there have been many such contests in this Colony, and none of them has caused any untoward incident to occur. "Iron" Box many times fought white men here and it can with truth be stated that these bouts were amongst the most enjoyable and exciting ever seen in the Colony. There is irony, too, in the fact that the very two men who are now prevented from meeting (Battling Key and S. P. O. Morgan) engaged in an encounter quite recently, with the result that a thoroughly sporting contest resulted. What is more, the Chinese boxer has fought Service men in the Straits without the least objection being raised or any ill-feeling being engendered. These facts, and others that could be cited, suffice to show that the fear of racial animosity being aroused is ill-founded. What other possible grounds there can be for prohibiting fights of this character we cannot imagine. There are none that we know of that cannot be easily answered.

So far as we can learn, the objection does not emanate from, nor is it necessarily approved by, the Boxing Association, which, we hear, was quite willing to arrange matches both for Box and Key. When we bear in mind that this Association is composed of prominent sportsmen, including some of the Colony's leading residents, it does seem anomalous that it should be subject to the dictation of a naval minority on this matter. The art of boxing would, we believe, be encouraged by the arrangement of matches irrespective of race; and we know no sound reason why in this sport alone discrimination should be shown. "Coloured" men are not shut out from cricket, tennis or football; why should they be excluded from boxing? Perhaps our naval friends will tell us.

The East in Parliament. The British possessions in the East are not likely to be neglected now that they have several former residents in Parliament. Mr. Gershom Stewart has been re-elected, and Mr. C. W. Darbishire has become an M. P. These two men, one formerly of Hongkong and the other an eloquent speaker, at one time of the Straits Legislative Council, are particularly to be depended on to bring up Eastern matters that require looking into. Mr. Gershom Stewart has already been responsible for a number of pertinent queries about this part of the world, and Colonel John Ward has also done his bit in that direction. Japanese doings, opium questions, and the multi-racial evil have had to face the glare of Parliamentary publicity in their time. Mr. Darbishire has had a good deal to criticise in the Malayan administration. Hitherto his arena has been the Straits Settlements Association in London, but now he has attained the right to voice his opinions before the chief debating society of the Empire. One wonders what his maiden speech will be about. Doubtless something about rubber! Anyhow, we can expect these members from the Far East to keep a watchful eye on all the little happenings that concern us. It is to be hoped that they will, if criticism is to be their forte, be free from any suggestion of perverted perspective of local matters. It is often difficult to grasp all the points of an Eastern question after a long absence in far away Britain.

Decrepit Labourers.

In all parts of the world where there is abundant and more or less cheap industrial manpower one meets with the problem of sweated labour, and in the East, particularly, there is the matter of the employment of decrepit labour. Here, in Hongkong, we are not likely ever to be free from this aspect of the labour question. One often wonders what system of weeding-out the law is able to enforce in the Colony. Most of the chair coolies appear to be very fit—they have to be in order to carry on their work—but there are ricksha pullers one meets with occasionally who are obviously too decrepit, either through age or disease, to continue their avocation for long. Again, one meets with aged Chinese women or girls with their backs bent to a premature stoop, toiling along the roads, on the lower levels and on the Peak, carrying heavily loaded baskets, their progress being in stages or spasms. There must be a great deal of loss of time and efficiency in the employment of such labour. But is there a real remedy? We can feel nothing but pity for these miserable wrecks of humanity, who perhaps are barely able to keep up a hand-to-mouth existence until they can struggle on no further in life's battle. Apparently the East is not sufficiently advanced for the institution of the equivalent of workhouses and old age pensions. These would give better prospects to a labourer's declining years than the homes for decrepits which our charity is sometimes able to provide for the broken toilers of this part of the world.

INCREASE OF MALARIA.

Dr. Koch's Suggestions.

At to-morrow's meeting of the Sanitary Board, Dr. W. V. M. Koch, pursuant to notice, will ask:

"In view of the increase of malaria during the year, which is partly attributable to the extensive building operations, will the Head of the Sanitary Department take the necessary steps to warn building contractors and others concerned to adopt prophylactic measures, and also advise the Authorities as to the necessity of filling in swamps and training nullahs in the vicinity of lands about to be sold."

LOCAL FOOTBALL.

Saturday's League Results.

(BY "QUIZ")

Saturday's games in the Hongkong League resulted as under—

Division I.
Hawkins	6 Durban
King's	5 Despatch
Kowloon	2 Carlisle
Tamar	2 South China
Ambrose	1 H.K. Club
R. G. A.	Police was not played.

Division II.
St. Joseph's	3 Kowloon
Hawkins	3 Warders
University	3 Carlisle
S. China "B"	2 Police
S. China "A"	0 R. G. A.
United A. C.	1 Auxiliaries
Ambrose	1 Despatch

Excepting the games Hawkins v. Durban and King's v. Despatch, the games were evenly contested and the Club were the only team in the Senior Division not to score. The drawn games between Tamar and South China and R.G.A. and South China "A" will no doubt upset the coupon forecasts this week.

Ambrose v. Club.

The home team were very weak in the fixture with the Ambrose on the Club ground, and those who did play seemed very much out of place. A general shuffle round of positions after the change of ends did not improve matters. The game did not start until 10 minutes after the advertised time, probably due to the Police turning up late in the Junior match. Begg and Valentine were absent from the attack and several chances for the Club to take lead early in the game were not accepted. The Club had the better of the exchanges, but the most they could do was to force a few corner kicks and although the ball was nicely placed the bustling tactics of the Ambrose team prevented any score. The only goal of the match came from a melee in front of the Club goal, when Edmonds worked the ball into the net from a general mix-up.

Hawkins v. Durban.

This game was noted for the prolific scoring, no less than seven goals being registered, which is the highest number scored in one game this season. Hynes scored for the Hawkins after five minutes' play and Osborne soon put them further ahead. Before the interval, Hynes put on the third goal and at half time the Hawkins had a lead of three clear goals.

Ten minutes after resuming the flagships were five up, Barkham and Frost having beaten Lawrence in goal. The Durban had a flying visit to the other end and Millar beat Hooper and scored the only goal for the Durban. Just before time, Osborne put on number six for the Hawkins.

King's v. Despatch.

At Sookunpoo, the King's had matters practically their own way in this match. The game was very fast throughout and on the run of the play the King's should have won by a greater margin. Jones, the King's centre-forward, was in scoring vein, finding the net on four occasions. The first goal came about through a weak clearance by the sailors' defence and Jones, being well up, sent the ball flying into the net after ten minutes' play. The best goal of the match came from the right wing, where Williams sent over a long spot and the ball, twisting, deceived the goalkeeper and landed in the net.

Being two down at the change of ends, the sailors tried hard to retrieve their position and forced a corner off Wynne from which Carter headed the ball into the net. With the score two to one in their favour, the King's took charge of the game and Jones scoring three goals in the closing half they won the game as stated above.

Kowloon v. Carlisle.

A very brisk game was played on the new Kowloon ground between the above teams, ending in favour of the home team by two goals to one. All the scoring took place in the opening half, Duncan registering the first goal for Kowloon. The home team did not have the lead long, for Downward, receiving a pass from Murphy went in and scored for the Carlisle, making the score one all. It was left to Tamar to put Kowloon ahead. Taking a pass from Clemo on the run, he gave Brown no chance and won the match for Kowloon. The second half was very evenly contested, but the half-time score remained unaltered.

Tamar v. South China.

On the Navy "A" ground these teams played a drawn game

LAWN BOWLS.

Kowloon Club's Closing Day.

There was a large gathering of lawn bowls enthusiasts at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on Saturday for the closing day. The weather was delightful and the band of the 102nd. K.O. Grenadiers was present, whilst tea was served during the afternoon.

A match was played between the Kowloon Bowling Green Club and The Rest, resulting in a win for the former by 37 points. At the conclusion of the match, the President of the Club (Mr. David Keith) made a brief speech and introduced Mrs. Hedley, who presented the year's prizes as follows—

Championship.—1st. (presented by the Club) Mr. W. M. Johnston; 2nd. (presented by Mr. Gow) Mr. J. Gibson; 3rd. (presented by Mr. Harvey) Mr. L. Guy. President's Prize.—1st. (presented by Mr. Keith) Mr. C. Atkinson; 2nd. (presented by Mr. Russell) Mr. D. Muir; 3rd. (presented by the Club) Mr. A. Whibley.

Vice-President's Prize.—1st. (presented by Mr. L. Guy) Mr. J. Gibson; 2nd. (presented by Mr. Farrell) Mr. R. Hall; 3rd. (presented by the Club) Mr. G. R. Edwards.

Handicap.—1st. (presented by 1st. Dundee) Mr. J. McKelvie; 2nd. (presented by Mr. Neilson) Mr. W. Russell; 3rd. (presented by the Club) Mr. J. Henderson.

Non-Prize Winners.—1st. (presented by 1st. Belfast) Mr. J. C. Brown; 2nd. (presented by the Club) Mr. A. Whibley; 3rd. (presented by the Club) Mr. H. Overy. Fair.—1st. (presented by Clydeside), Messrs. Barr and Johnston.

before a large attendance. The sailors had the better of the exchanges in the opening play and seven minutes from the start were two goals up, Oxland and Burd scoring. South China, playing with good combination, reduced their opponents' lead before the interval, when Wong Shui-wa sent in a twirling shot that Routley in the Tamar goal treated too lightly and was surprised to find the ball had passed between his legs into the net.

After the change of ends, the game of football was forgotten and rough play was indulged in, which brought a caution from the referee to both teams. The method of play then improved and South China made the score two all through Routley fumbling a shot from Wong Pak-chong and Leung Tai-fong receiving the ball returned it into the net. The game ended in a draw of two goals all.

The Junior Games.

In the Junior games, St. Joseph's crossing over to Kowloon, came away with the points, winning the match in the closing half when three goals were put on by P. Xavier, Ogley and Omar.

A well-contested game was that between the United and Auxiliaries, for when a goalless draw seemed almost certain, Brown got the ball past Hill who had played a good game in goal for the Auxiliaries. The United won by a goal to nil.

Hawkins had an easy win against the Warders, Wrigley scoring twice in the opening half, while Hewitt put them further ahead before the close.

University accounted for the Carlisle Reserves after being two to one against them at the interval. Garry and Mitchell scored for the sailors while Samy (2) and Luz scored for the University.

Ambrose beat the Despatch by a goal to nil, Burt scoring the only goal of the match.

South China "B" beat the Police Reserves by two goals to nil, Ip-Kau and Kwok Po-kan being the scorers.

At Sookunpoo, the R. G. A. Reserves and South China "A" played a drawn game. No score.

FUKIEN MISERY.

A Tragic Story.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Foochow, Nov. 15th.

News from the northern part of the Province is not very bright. A missionary writing from Kienyang Hsien says: "Things are still in a very bad way here. For the last fortnight there have been the wildest rumours, and some hundreds of soldiers have passed through here the last few days for Mass and the Shaowu region, where we hear fighting was going on with the Northern troops who took Shaowu. The people are simply terrified and for days there was an exodus from the city so that now you see only a few old women and men in the streets. Almost every house is tightly closed up and it seems to be a city of the dead. The soldiers have been taking the men to carry their loads and guns, and now the few that are left go off and hide in the hills lest they too be taken. The soldiers wait until the men are in bed and then go and knock on their doors; then they go into the rooms and take them off by force. No one is coming in from the country, so that it is getting quite difficult to get either towels or eggs, and the green vegetables in the fields the soldiers go and help themselves to. The rice which ought to have been cut is left until it is growing again and will soon be quite useless. The few men left cannot go out to cut it as the soldiers follow them and compel them to carry loads. It is most difficult to hire boats, and they charge a fearful price if you do get one, and then you are not sure that you will reach your destination. Chairs are quite impossible to get, or load carriers either. Bandits are getting very troublesome in the villages around. Two villages were raided the other night. The schools have stopped as all the children have fled from the city. One of the painters who was painting our house was taken and we can find no trace of him. Last night we had the first white frost of the season, and it is quite cold; one's heart aches for the women and children now on the hills, just living in rough sheds hastily put up for them. They will suffer terribly now as they are not getting proper food and, of course, have not much warm clothing either."

A PEKING SENSATION.

Arrest of Cabinet Minister.

Peking, Nov. 19.—The Cabinet sent out a circular telegram to the provinces this afternoon stating that Wu Ching-lian and Chang Po-ieh, Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of the House of Representatives, have officially banded the President a statement to the effect that Lo Wen-kan has privately signed an agreement with a Sino-Italian Bank regarding the postponement of the Austro-German Loan signed prior to the war. Wu Ching-lian requested the president to order the arrest of Lo Wen-kan, who is now at Court awaiting examination. The telegram says the truth of the charges must be made clear in accordance with law, and this report is circulated in order to dispel rumours and avoid misunderstandings. The Cabinet has resolved to resign but will not leave office until this case is cleared up. The House of Representatives issued an urgent notice this afternoon calling on members to attend a special meeting to-morrow, at which Lo Wen-kan's case will be discussed.

At a meeting this afternoon, Wang Chung-huai stated that the warrant was issued by the Police Court, whereas a Cabinet member should be arrested by order of a Higher Court. President Li Yuan-hung thereupon ordered the release of Lo Wen-kan, who refused to accept his liberty until the case is tried. The Premier has resigned and other Cabinet members are doing likewise separately. It is reported that the warrant was issued at the instance of Parliamentarians.—Reuter.

PEKING NEWS.

The Nine-Power Treaty.

A Peking message states that a Senator declared at a meeting of the Committee for Foreign Affairs that as the Nine-Power Treaty was illegally sanctioned by the former President it should not be recognised as binding.

Another Peking message says the Premier has informed the President that he intends to resign.

SQUARE STREET MURDER TRIAL.

"The Thirty-Six Society."

The Criminal Sessions, which commenced this morning before Mr. Justice Gompertz, opened with a murder charge. Accused was Lam Wing and his alleged victim a man called Tam Tat, who was stabbed in Square Street at half-past seven on the night of Oct. 25th.

The Attorney-General (Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp) prosecuted and Mr. Campbell Prosser (instructed by Mr. C. H. Lyson) conducted the defence.

The jury were Messrs. J. Bentley, Chan Wing-cheung, T. E. Jones, J. McL. Walker, Wong Kam-fuk, G. H. White and A. Dransfield.

The story as told by the Attorney-General was to the effect that on the evening in question deceased was sitting outside No. 6 Square Street, when four men rushed up and attacked him. One of them, the prisoner, had a dagger. Deceased was stabbed in four places, one of his ribs being broken. Tam Tat died the next morning in hospital. Prisoner, who was in the employment of the Sanitary Department, disappeared. He was absent from his work on the 26th and 27th, although he had not applied for leave. On the morning of the 27th, prisoner went to the house of a fellow-countryman and said he had just come back from the country and wanted work. Prisoner was told he could stay the night, but that evening the police came to the house and arrested him. There was no doubt as to who did the stabbing, the Attorney-General submitted, because prisoner in his statement made at the Police Station admitted having stabbed deceased. He said: "About 10 years ago he was an enemy of mine. He struck me before. Owing to the recent boy's affair I gave him some warning. He was angry with me. He struck me first. In return I struck him and stabbed him with a dagger. As soon as I stabbed him I ran away. I do not know whether he is dead or alive."

Mr. Prosser cross-examined a woman witness at some length on a body called "The 36 Society."

CHATER PARTY ACTION.

Indian Firm Sued.

The Cheong Steamship Company, of Shanghai, brought a charter party action against Dharm Nandi and Co., of Chittagong, India, in the Supreme Court, before the Chief Justice (Sir Wm. Rees-Davies) this morning.

Mr. Eldon Potter and Mr. F. C. Jenkin (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist) appeared for the plaintiffs, and the defence was conducted by Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K. C., and Mr. McNeill, of Shanghai, (instructed by Messrs. Deacon, Looker, Deacon and Harston).

The claim was for $168,849.87 (Hongkong) under a submission made under an arbitration clause in a charter party in respect of the s.s. Singaporean. The defence was that the charter party sued upon was rescinded and a new agreement was entered into.

An hour and a half of the time of the Court was taken up in arguing which side should begin. Mr. McNeill submitted that under a clause of the Code, Civil Procedure, the defence had the right to begin.

After hearing counsel for both sides, his Lordship held that the pleadings of the defence put in issue material points, which put the onus of proof on the plaintiffs.

Mr. Potter, opening, said notice was given to defendants of the intention to proceed to arbitration. The defendants, ignored that notice and allowed the award to go by default and they were now endeavouring to get rid of that award. Discussing the charter party, counsel said the ship was to have been delivered on March 1st, 1917, at Singapore. The charter party was for ten calendar months and the charterer had the right to use the ship in practically every part of the world, west of Bombay and south of Vladivostok, but was not allowed to trade in the Philippines. The cancelling date was March 31st, 1917. On that date the vessel was requisitioned by the Government. Plaintiffs got into touch with defendants and asked if they wished to go on. Plaintiffs' case was that defendants said they wished to go on as soon as the ship was released. The defendants now said that they would take the vessel only if she was released within the ten months. Counsel mentioned that Messrs. George Grimbly and Co. were acting on behalf of the defendants in Hongkong.

LATE MR. R. E. BELLIOS.

Tribute From Legal Community.

The legal profession this morning paid tribute to the late Mr. R. E. Bellios. The Supreme Court was attended by representatives of practically all the firms of solicitors in the Colony and most of the Court officials also were present. The Chief Justice (Sir Wm. Rees Davies) was supported on the Bench by the Puisne Judge (Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz) and at the baristers' table were the Attorney-General (Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp, K.C.), the Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., Mr. C. G. Alabaster, K.C., Mr. Eldon Potter, Mr. F. C. Jenkin, Mr. E. Zithyn, Mr. Campbell Prosser, and Mr. McNeill, of Shanghai.

All present standing, the Chief Justice said: Mr. Attorney-General, proceeding with the business of the Court it will, I am assured, be consonant with the feelings of the profession to pay tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Bellios. He was with us a few months ago and has been taken in the prime of life whilst enjoying a holiday at home. Mr. Bellios's family was of high repute in Hongkong. He was educated here and studied law in the Chambers of the late Mr. Francis, proceeding to England, where he was called at the Middle Temple. He practised frequently at our Criminal Sessions and we appreciated much his friendly and generous disposition. Possessed of a generous heart, his many acts of charity were proverbial and he may truly be said of him that he did much good by stealth. In the realm of sport also he will be sorely missed and particularly amongst the yachting community. To his family we desire to convey our genuine and respectful sympathy.

Mr. Justice Gompertz desired to associate himself with those remarks. The Attorney-General spoke on behalf of both branches of the legal profession, who associated themselves with the remarks of the Chief Justice and tendered their sympathy to those who had been bereaved.

KEYS DISAPPOINTMENT.

Willing to Meet "Iron" Bux.

This morning, Battling Key called at the Telegraph office and stated that, in consequence of the colour ban, he intended returning to Singapore at the earliest possible moment. He added that he should like to express his thanks to members of the Chinese Recreation Club and a number of prominent Chinese residents who had financially assisted him during his stay here.

Regarding the colour ban, Battling Key said if he had known that it was in force here he would not have come to Hongkong. "In the Straits," he said "there is no colour line, and local boys often fight Army and Navy men. I have myself had several such fights, the proceeds of which have gone to European and Asiatic charities. I am very sorry that I have not been given a chance in Hongkong."

Key added that he would be quite prepared to fight "Iron" Bux in Hongkong, if the Boxing Association could get him to come here, provided Bux could scale within the lightweight limit and a satisfactory purse were put up. Such a fight, if staged locally, should prove a great draw.

INTERPORT TENNIS.

The Matches Against Shanghai.

Arrangements are well in hand for the interport tennis matches between Hongkong and Shanghai, which are to take place on the Hongkong Cricket Club ground to-morrow and Wednesday.

The pair to represent Hongkong in the doubles event will be Ng Sze-kwong and Pay Lieut. Comdr. Worthington, whilst the former will be one of the singles men, the other not having been chosen.

Shanghai's doubles pair will be J. Elmore and P. D. Carnavaro. The doubles will take place at 3.45 to-morrow, whilst on Wednesday two singles contests will be played off.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. G.A. Heyburn.

We regret to have to announce the death, which occurred yesterday morning, of Mr. G.A. Heyburn, the manager in the East of the Admiral Oriental Line, which has its headquarters at Shanghai.

Mr. Heyburn had been in bad health for some time, but a fatal termination to his illness was not expected. He had been suffering from internal complications. Mr. E.F. Townsend, the local manager of the line, went to Shanghai recently to act during Mr. Heyburn's illness, and Mr. E.L. Matteson, the Singapore manager, came up to Hongkong.

The deceased gentleman had been with the Admiral Oriental Line ever since its foundation as the Admiral Line in 1916. He joined up the same year, and served with the American troops in France for over a year as a captain, being afterwards promoted Major. He first came to the East in 1919, as assistant manager and was promoted to the head of the East emergency four months ago.

SLAUGHTER AT PAKHOI.

45 Chinese Publicly Shot.

A Pakhoi correspondent writes us under date of November 17th as follows:

On the 17th inst. 45 Chinese were publicly shot at the east end of the town. Of these 35 were Mrs. Lo Hon-cho's men, and the rest were said to be robbers. They knelt five paces apart and the line extended a couple of hundred yards. They quietly went to the slaughter; courage was not lacking amongst them, some of them were smoking cigarettes. At a given signal they all fell together, being shot in the head from behind by a special bullet. It was a rare but not a pleasant sight. During the last 21 days, 71 Chinese have been publicly shot here, and the like has never been seen in this place.

It is reported that Mrs. Lo Hon-cho will not be shot. She is still in the hands of the military, held in irons under a strong armed guard, which has been increased from time to time, owing to rumours of plans being made to rescue her. She has now been removed into Limchow City.

CANTON NEWS.

Some Interesting Items.

Our Canton correspondent reports that rumours are in circulation to the effect that owing to lack of funds to meet the military expenses of the Kwangsi and Fukien expeditions, the authorities intend to revive the gambling monopoly.

A general meeting of all the Labour Guilds was held on Sunday, for the purpose, it is stated, of strengthening the relationships between the various organisations.

The Canton Cement Company has been closed by order of the Provincial Treasurer, because it is in arrears with its lease contributions.

The salt monopolist has refused to comply with the Provincial Treasurer's request to advance the Government two million dollars before the same is due.

All the weavers, men and women alike, have gone on strike, demanding more wages.

The Canton Times of to-day states on reliable authority that the Government will never again approve of licensed gambling. The Government is being greatly embarrassed by outside reports that a syndicate is offering many million dollars a year to procure the gambling monopoly.

Singapore observed the fourth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice by services of thanksgiving in all the Churches, by a special service at the Cenotaph early in the morning, and by other events of a less solemn character. The two minutes' silence was duly observed at 11 o'clock. The church services were largely attended and were of an impressive character. There was a large number of guests at the Ex-Services Dinner which was held at the Raffles Hotel, and the special dance at that Hotel and also at the Europe Hotel were attended by large gatherings.

NOTICE

"—so we would gather in the coffee house to read the news sheets from England, the while smoking
long pipes of Virginia
tobacco."
—From an old letter.

THE charm of those early days is in every puff of Virginia tobacco

Gone is the romance of those quaint old days, but the charm that is in Virginia tobacco is world famous and will always live. For the golden sunshine and rich soil of Virginia have something about them that is exactly right for growing the best taste into cigarette tobacco.

And Old Mill Cigarettes, made entirely of high grade Virginia tobacco, have all the appetizing freshness and zesty taste that only Virginia tobacco can give.

Try them today.
